*When underrepresented students visit campus, they tailor the events/tours to the audience as best possible. They have staff & students that can relate to various populations. The assigned personnel & enrolled students lead the tours, participate in the student panel, &/or provide an admissions or cultural workshops. Their ability to connect with visiting students at a deeper level has shown to be effective with underserved populations, demonstrating how UW Bothell can support & fit individuals' needs. *Also offer campus & housing tours, admissions presentations, College Awareness Days, & Senior Application Days.	At times, they're able to get professors to present & answer student questions but require advance notice. Depends on faculty volunteers' availability. Contacting UW Bothell ASAP for large groups is also important as space can be limited due to student growth.

*Generally offer a student-led campus tour and information session with an Admission staff member for all groups. Depending on the size and age of the group, they have offered lunch on campus, class visits, and VERY rarely overnight stays (those are more available for individual visits). *Group coordinators are more than welcome to request activities, and they will do their best to make the accommodation. If you are bringing a very small group to campus (10 or less) class visits &amp; an overnight stay might be an option, depending on the date. *Please plan for an hour on campus for each requested activity. Tours are typically one hour as well as the Information Sessions.	Limited activities: Class visits and overnight stays are only available to juniors &amp; seniors. However, juniors cannot stay overnight on campus in March &amp; April due to the high volume of seniors visiting campus.

Very dependent on the time of year/day of week.	Their busiest visit months are October/November and March/April, so they will most likely have more flexibility outside of those months. They do not have summer session, so May-August is more difficult to find enough tour guides. Other than that, their schedule is fairly open.
Other Important Info	Bilingual Guides (Spanish/English)
Whitman College has hosted groups as small as 5 & as large as 60. Encourage ratio of 1 adult per 10 students.	Yes, they also have native speakers on campus who may be available to assist in other languages.

There is an outdoor sculpture walk available. In the past, groups have contacted the Hall of Science for a Planetarium Show, the athletic department for activities with a varsity team, etc. They plan to have senior interns assigned to help coordinate group visits this year. With this extra help, their intention is to be able to offer more of these interactive activities, including things like student panels.	Other Ways to Visit: *Visitors' Days are a great opportunity to get an overview of the college &amp; see their community in action, all in 1 day! While attending a Visitors' Day students can take a tour of campus, listen to a panel on student life, ask questions about potential majors &amp; learn about Whitman's many extracurricular options. They offer 2 Fall Visitors' Days &amp; 1 Spring Visitors' Day geared towards HS juniors &amp; seniors &amp; transfer students. Admitted Students' Day, held in Apr, provides an opportunity for admitted students to get an in-depth feel for academic &amp; co-curricular programs &amp; engage with members of the Whitman Community. *They offer an online visit scheduler. Complete a Request a Group Visit to get the process started. It is very helpful if the group coordinator can complete this request. It will send an email directly to Cristie with the information submitted. Please don't hesitate to call or email with questions.
